When Buying Real Estate

First, see that the surroundings of the property and transportation to it are satisfactory.
Second, insist that the seller furnish you an Abstract of Title or Title Guarantee Policy made by the Chicago Title and Trust Company.

If the seller cannot furnish an Abstract of Title or Guarantee Policy, do not buy. The rich investors require this and you should insist upon receiving the same.

Third, have the property conveyed to yourself and wife by joint tenancy deed; then if either of you die the survivor will own the property without the trouble and expense of going through the Probate Court.

Go to any good lawyer and he will see to it that you receive the above.
